

OTHER GRANTS

FINE ARTS COMMISSION GRANT - Chesapeake Public Schools receives a grant from the Chesapeake Fine Arts Commission to fund a museum field trip experience for elementary students to the Chrysler Museum whose purpose is to provide a cultural museum field trip experience correlated with the Standards of Learning for science and social studies for the second grade students. (Source of funds – Chesapeake Fine Arts Commission)

LIFE SKILLS GRANT-UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO – Provides funding for substitute teachers for middle school LifeSkills Training (LST) to attend LST workshops. The purpose of the LST model is to prevent/reduce adolescents' tobacco, alcohol and drug use. (Source of funds – University of Colorado at Boulder)

PROJECT LEAD THE WAY (PLTW) - Chesapeake Public Schools was awarded a grant through the Department of Education, Office of Career and Technical Education Services for the improvement/implementation of the Project Lead the Way (PLTW) Engineering Program at the Technology Academy at Grassfield High School. Funds are used to assist with the implementation of the Project Lead the Way Engineering Program at the Grassfield High School Technology Academy. (Source of Funds: Project Lead the Way (PLTW) Organization and Virginia Dept of Education)

SEA WORLD ENVIRONMENTAL GRANT – An award was given to Catherine Roberts, Western Branch Middle school science teacher, in recognition for environmental programs implemented by the students. The funds will be used to continue environmental education and to continue and expand the students' environmental projects at Western Branch Middle school (Source of Funds: Sea World Busch Gardens Environmental Award)

SPECIAL NEEDS SIBLINGS WORKSHOPS - Provides funding for materials and supplies needed for workshops for siblings of children with special needs whose purpose is to provide peer support and education within a recreational setting. (Source of Funds – Tidewater Children's Foundation)

ANTICIPATED GRANTS

ANTICIPATED GRANTS - Transfer account to accommodate increases in grant funding and new grants.